

Best Southwestern
Tonto Bar & Grill

Nestled in the foothills of Tonto National Forest, the gorgeous golf course setting for this Territorial-style hacienda is no less remarkable than the hyper-local Southwestern fare inside. Tonto's chefs forage the surrounds for mesquite beans, jojoba seeds and cholla buds, blending them with modern ingredients in a flavorful fusion of American Indian and New West cuisines. Don't miss the tortilla-cruste crab cakes with roasted chile slaw.

- Phoenix Magazine November 2011